

CURRICULUM VITAE

Mirjana Marinković PhD
Kneza Miloša Street 80, Belgrade,
Republic of Serbia
Phone: +381 11 2645 670, + 381 63 205 634
e-mail: mirjana.marinkovic65@gmail.com

Date of birth:

June 6th 1965, Požega, Republic of Serbia, Yugoslavia
Married, two children

Employment:

Assistant Professor,
Faculty of Philology, University of Belgrade, Republic of Serbia

Positions held:

Head of the Department of Oriental Studies, Faculty of Philology, University of Belgrade
2004-2006

Education:

Ph.D., Philology, University of Belgrade, 2002
Concentrations: Classical Turkish Literature, Contemporary Turkish Literature, History of the Ottoman Empire, Cultural History of the Ottoman Empire.
Dissertation: Turkish-Serbian Literary Relations 1965-2000

M.A. History, University of Belgrade, 1996.
Concentrations: Political and Diplomatic Relations between Serbian Principality and Ottoman Empire
Thesis: The Turkish Chancellery of Prince Miloš Obrenović (1815-1839)

B.A. Philology, Oriental Studies, University of Belgrade, 1988.

Experience:

Researcher 1991-2000
Historical Institute of Serbian Academy of Sciences and Arts

Teaching Assistant, 1999-2003
Faculty of Philology
University of Belgrade

Courses taught: Turkish Language, Turkish Literature

Assistant Professor: 2003 –
Faculty of Philology
University of Belgrade

Courses taught: Turkish Language, Classical and Contemporary Turkish Literature, Arabic Grammar, Cultural History of the Arabs (2005-2006), Cultural History of the Turks

Research Specialization:

Ottoman Language, Ottoman Manuscripts of 19th century, Translations from Turkish, Turkish History 19-20. century, Serbia under the Ottoman rule in 19th century, Modern Turkish, Classical Turkish Literature, Contemporary Turkish Literature

Languages spoken:

Turkish, Arabic, English, French